ASK ALAN... WORKS OF ART

The best London exhibitions to visit in 2024

GABRIELLE CHANEL. FASHION MANIFESTO V&A, until 10th March 2024

The first UK exhibition dedicated to the work of French Couturiere, Gabrielle “Coco” Chanel, charting the establishment of the House of CHANEL and the evolution of her iconic design style, which continues to influence the way women dress today.

DOUGLAS GORDON: “ALL I NEED IS A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING” Gagosian Gallery, 20 Grosvenor Hill, Mayfair, until 15th March 2024

All i Need is a Little Bit of Everything features numerous text works—translated for the first time into multiple languages—plus the encyclopedic installation Pretty much every film and video work from about 1992 until now... (1999–) and a new work, 2023 EastWestGirlsBoys (2023), which reflects on the artist’s memories of London’s Soho neighborhood.

BARBARA KRUGER: “THINKING OF YOU. I MEAN ME. I MEAN YOU” Serpentine South Gallery, until 17th March 2024

Serpentine is honoured to present a solo exhibition of recent works by American artist Barbara Kruger. Titled Thinking of You. I Mean Me. I Mean You, the exhibition will feature a unique selection of installations, moving image works, and multiple soundscapes installed across the Serpentine building, bookshop, and outside banners, as well as on large-scale, immersive wraparound screens at Outernet Arts.
